

NEW SWAN 2015 SEMINARS & WORKSHOPS

PRE-PERFORMANCE SEMINARS: "5 THINGS TO LOOK FOR" SERIES

Before selected performances, a scholar will give audience members 5 things to look for in the play they are about to see. Each talk is different! Let us surprise you. Convene next to the New Swan at 7:00 pm.

Friday, July 24: (Macbeth): Amy Kenny, UC Riverside

Saturday, August 1 (Macbeth): Stephen Barker, UCI

Thursday, August 6 (Much Ado): Greg Ungar, University of Denver

Tuesday, August 11 (Macbeth): Julia Lupton, UCI (rescheduled)

Saturday, August 15 (Much Ado): Kent Cartwright, University of Maryland

Saturday, August 22 (Much Ado): Kent Lehnhof, Chapman

Saturday, August 29 (Macbeth): Ian Munro, UCI

POST-SHOW TALK BACKS

After every Saturday performance, the actors and director will answer questions about the plays.

SHAKESPEARE WEEKEND

Saturday, August 15: Much Ado About Nothing

Sunday, August 16: Macbeth

Afternoon of study beginning at 2:00 pm with UCI faculty and distinguished guests followed by performance at New Swan. Contact Julia Lupton.

FIRST FOLIO FRIDAYS

Noontime seminars at the Langson Library begin with a short lecture and end in Special Collections with a viewing of UCI's copy of Shakespeare's First Folio. Seminars led by Julia Lupton (English), Steve McLeod (Special Collections) and John Renaud (Special Collections). Special 50th Anniversary guest on August 7: Robert Cohen, founding chair of UCI's Drama Department.

Friday, August 7: Macbeth

Friday, August 14: Much Ado About Nothing

Location: Laudati Conference Room, Langson Library 570.

The Seminar Series is hosted by the UCI Shakespeare Center, New Swan Shakespeare Festival, UCI Libraries, the Department of English, the Department of Drama, the Humanities Commons, and Illuminations: The Chancellor's Arts and Culture Initiative.
CONTACT INFO: Julia Lupton, jrlupton@uci.edu.

NEW SWAN SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL